FRENCH AND BRITISH TROOPS, TRAPPED IN POCKET, WILL CONTINUE TO FIGHT, DESPITE BELGIAN CAPITULATION; FRENCH COMMUNIQUE STATES SITUATION IS AGGRAVATED

Leopold's Army Was Engaged by Side of British and French
Troops, and Latter Are Facing a New Situation;
Claim Weygand Has Established a New Line Along Somme and Aisne Rivers

By Victor McCausland, I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
PARIS, May 28—French and British troops trapped in the "pocket," forged by German legions in northern France and Belgium, will keep on fighting despite the Belgian capitulation, the French high command announced today.
A French war communique, issued shortly after Premier Reynaud's broadcast announcing surrender of Belgium's army, stated the military situation has become "aggravated."
"The military situation has been aggravated in the north as a result of King Leopold's action. His army was engaged by the side of British and French troops and the latter are facing a new situation but are continuing to fight."
Earlier it was reported, counterattacking French and British forces had narrowed still further the German corridor through northern France to the English channel.
Informed circles in Paris stressed Reynaud's revelation that General Weygand has established a new line along the Somme and Aisne Rivers.
These quarters said this was "significant with regard to the northern armies."

In addition these quarters estimated, the strength of the Belgian army in the north at the start of hostilities 18 days ago, at 250,000 men. It was stated some 200,000 Belgian soldiers have surrendered to the Germans. (Editor's Note: A German spokesman placed the number of Belgian troops surrendering at 500,000 men.)
A French military spokesman said that the Belgians laid down their arms at 5 o'clock this morning—an hour after King Leopold's capitulation.
"King Leopold capitulated alone," the spokesman said. "He did not consult the army, the people, or the government. All the responsibility is his."

BERLIN, May 28—The capitulation of the Belgian army will enable Germany to redouble its military campaign against the Allied forces, authoritative German quarters declared today.
This statement was made after Hitler's headquarters announced that King Leopold had decided to give up "senseless resistance" and asked for an armistice.
In reply, it was announced, Germany demanded, and received, the unconditional surrender of the Belgian army, which a spokesman said was of "enormous military importance."
In addition, a German official announcement said:
"The German forces will now push on with increased vigor to pursue the destruction of those chiefly guilty for the war."

Furthermore, the announcement said, the Belgian King and army will be treated "with the respect due the bravery of fighting soldiers."
Chancellor Hitler, said this announcement, has assigned King Leopold a Belgian castle as a personal residence.

LONDON, May 28—Frank admission that the surrender of King Leopold has placed the British armies in France in an extremely precarious position, was made today by Alfred Duff Cooper, British Minister of Information. In a broadcast to the British people, Duff Cooper asked Britons to reserve judgment on his act.
"There is not the slightest need for anything in the nature of panic. There should be no loss of complete confidence that in the end we will achieve ultimate victory."

PARIS, May 28—The French and Air Association of American Volunteers today ejected Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh from honorary membership because of his criticizing President Roosevelt for his defense address recently.
Lindbergh was made an honorary member after his flight across the Atlantic.
LONDON, May 28—More British air raids on German transports were announced today, simultaneously with some air raid reports by British bombing craft.
By John MacVane
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, May 28—(INS)—Capitulation of the Belgian Army to the German invaders under orders of King Leopold was announced by French Premier Paul Reynaud in a nationwide radio broadcast today.
Reynaud stated, however, that the Belgian Government in France refused to adhere to King Leopold's capitulation order.
The Belgian Government will continue to fight, the French Premier declared.
"The responsible Ministers of the Belgian Government," Reynaud said, "added they would place their services in the common cause."

"All forces of the country are still at their disposal. They are willing to continue on Page Two"

Murder and Suicide
Lansdale, May 28—After fatally stabbing his 30-year-old daughter-in-law, Harman Yerkes, 65, former professional baseball player, today killed himself with a shot-gun blast at his home in nearby Montgomeryville.
The murdered woman, Mrs. Gladys C. Yerkes, was stabbed through the chest, dying shortly after being admitted to the Elm Terrace Hospital.
Yerkes was a brother of Steve Yerkes, former Red Sox infielder, and now manager of Gloversville, N. Y. club, in the Canadian-American Baseball League, and Claude Yerkes, manager of Glenside bowling alley.
The murdered woman was stabbed through the chest near the heart with a butcher knife, as she lay in bed. Her husband, J. Harman Yerkes, Jr., attempted to interfere. Today was Mrs. Yerkes' 30th birthday anniversary.
Following a preliminary investigation, state troopers expressed the belief that the aged man had become deranged by worry over financial troubles.
Entering the bedroom of his son and daughter-in-law, the elder Yerkes ordered Mrs. Yerkes to get up because "the baker's coming," her husband told police. He kept talking irrationally, and when Mrs. Yerkes refused to obey his order he cut her on the neck with a pen-knife, which his son wrested from him.
Dashing from the bedroom on the second floor of the five-room frame house on Bethlehem Pike, the father went to the kitchen, obtained a butcher knife, and returned. With a wild lunge, which the son was powerless to prevent, he jammed the knife into his daughter-in-law's chest.
After arousing his three sleeping youngsters, and placing them in the family car, the son carried his dying wife to the automobile and drove to Elm Terrace Hospital, Lansdale, where she died a couple of hours later.
Meanwhile, State Trooper J. J. Shovelin, of Doylestown barracks, drove to the Yerkes home. There he found the elderly man dead in his room. He had killed himself by placing a shot-gun barrel in his mouth, and pushing the trigger with a file.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

Both Sides of The Street
Washington, May 27.
LISTENING to Mr. Roosevelt's fourteen fire-side chat Sunday night, it would not be surprising if those of "My Friends" with any capacity for thought at all found themselves somewhat confused. After having been told by the President hardly more than a week ago of the frightful inadequacy of our armed forces and the urgent necessity for enhancing them, they were suddenly informed that both army and navy are really in wonderful shape—far better, in fact, than they have ever been before in peacetime. Actually, said Mr. Roosevelt, the navy is in better shape than it was in the last war.

UNDoubtedly, navy and army are in better condition now than when Mr. Roosevelt became President. Nevertheless, it is as dangerous for him to overpraise the condition as it is unfair for his critics to charge that he has done nothing at all. And overpraise it he unquestionably did. It isn't either wise or safe to depict an

YOUR GIFT IS NEEDED

Five million French and Belgian refugees are urgently in need of American Red Cross help.

With millions locked in combat on French and Belgian soil the relief needs of the civilians of these countries reach staggering proportions. Already five million pitiful refugees are clogging every road in Central Southern France, trying to escape bombing and strafing from airplanes, according to American Red Cross representatives in France. These reports state that thousands are dying by roadsides not only of wounds but of fright and hunger. The American Red Cross must rush relief of every kind if these innocent people are to be saved.

The American Red Cross European War Relief Fund is growing but more and bigger contributions must be received if this tragically needed aid is to be given promptly to the victims of brutal war.

To help meet the unprecedented emergency in Belgium and France, the Red Cross has cabled 25,000,000 francs for the disposal of American Red Cross representatives and will send a similar amount in a few days. This money is being used for the French Red Cross and other agencies which are trying to cope with the refugee problem. In addition to this the Red Cross has made purchases in the past few days aggregating $1,000,000 for ambulances, field hospitals, surgical instruments and trucks.

The urgency of immediate American aid to the war refugees and victims in Europe is dramatically told in a cablegram received at American Red Cross Headquarters from Wayne Chatfield Taylor, American Red Cross representative in Paris. Taylor says:

"While army is fighting for life France is welcoming Belgians, old and young, who arrive on foot, by wagons, on bicycles, in trucks, automobile and trains. Some are wounded, some are sick, all are hungry and completely exhausted. They bring with them practically nothing. Meanwhile French evacuees in great numbers withdraw from battle areas under similar conditions."

AMERICAN COOKING

The great American cook is to be honored in her own country. One of the hotel chains is to comb the land for housewives' recipes, famed in their own circles or localities, but worthy of wider fame. The canvass follows an analysis of 161,000,000 meal checks from the chain's many restaurants. It shows a steady decline in the standing of Continental specialties, a corresponding rise in that of traditional American fare.

Corned beef and cabbage outdraw sole marguery 3 to 1; apple pan dowdy has long since passed French pastry; lamb stew is outdrawing Parisian meat courses drenched in sauce. The chain would go further. It would draw on American resources of cookery still untapped. Codfish cakes on the morning menu of a midwest hostelry is a sign of a reciprocity worth cultivating. Kentucky does noble things with old ham. Other sections should become acquainted with them.

The two seaboard enjoy many simple fish dishes that deserve a wider public; the Pennsylvania Dutch have a whole cuisine on which to draw; the indigenous hamburger and its affiliate, the meat-ball, are susceptible to infinite variation; corn lends itself to a myriad delectable forms.

Memorial Plans Include Speeches and Big Parades

The line will form again, and march down Bristol Pike to Red Lion Road, to the St. Michael's Chapel, where exercises will be conducted by the Rev. Father Hager, president of Holy Ghost College, Cornwells Heights. After placing a wreath at the tomb of General Edward Morrell, the group will march to the home of D. G. Hopkins, on the Morrell Estate where, in the field in front of the home, they will be dismissed, and served refreshments.

Games and contests for prizes will be announced that Belgian Premier Hubert Pierlot, who arrived in London Sunday, would speak over the French radio at 12.30 p. m. (7.30 a. m., EDT).

Making no effort to conceal the seriousness of this newest war development, Reynaud told the French people:

"I must announce to the French people a grave event which occurred during the night.

"Frenchmen no longer can count on the support of the Belgian Army.

"Since four o'clock this morning the British and French Armies alone are opposing the German Army.

"Now," Reynaud continued, bitterly, "the Belgian Army has laid down its arms on orders of its King—the same king who appealed to the Allies to come to his aid, the same king who in December of last year refused to have any staff talks with the Allies, the same king who up to May 10 professed to have equal faith in the word of Germany as in that of the Allies, the same king who without a word of gratitude or admiration for the soldiers of the Allies has now handed the Belgian army over to the invaders."

Explaining the present military situation, Reynaud said: "Our armies are divided into two groups. The French army is fighting on the Somme River.

"The other group consisted of the Belgian army, the British Expeditionary Force and some French divisions under command of General (George) Blanchard. They were provisioned by way of Dunkerque.

"Eighteen days ago the King of the Belgians made his appeal to the Allies for help.

"The Belgian army now suddenly and unconditionally has capitulated in the midst of battle under orders of its king without having warned their French and British comrades in arms."

Reynaud stated that this capitulation "opens the road to Dunkerque to the German divisions," he added:

"Without consideration, without a word for the French and British soldiers which at his urgent appeal came to the aid of his country, Leopold has given up the fight."

In addition to Dunkerque, said Reynaud, the entire northern flank previously guarded by the Belgian forces against the German troops is now wide open to the invaders.

"This event is unprecedented in history," said the premier.

"The Belgian Government has informed me the King took the decision against the unanimous advice of his ministers."

"Misfortune always has made France greater."

(Editor's Note: The Paris radio announced that Generalissimo Maxime Weygand had flown to Belgium on Sunday, conferring with King Leopold and Belgian military leaders. From today's announcement, it appeared the French may have had advance knowledge of the Belgian capitulation and sent Weygand on his trip in an effort to stiffen Leopold's resistance.)

Reynaud revealed the Belgian capitulation in a bitter address exhorting Belgium—particularly King Leopold.

He said that Leopold had "given up" the fight "without consideration for the Allies" and charged that Leopold took the decision "against the unanimous advice of his Ministers."

Window Boxes and Flower Pots Need Regular Ration

Plants grown in boxes and pots obtain their nourishment from relatively small amounts of soil. Naturally they soon exhaust the soil of plantfood and water. In order to take care of this need, soils used in pots and boxes should be in good physical condition and hold large quantities of water.

A soil of good physical condition may be made by mixing three parts of loam, one part of decomposed organic matter such as peat moss, composted material, or leaf mold, and one part of sand or sifted coal ashes. If one prefers, good potting soil may usually be obtained from a florist.

Physical condition of the soil has little to do with plantfood content, except that a friable soil is necessary for proper root growth, and such root growth makes possible the absorption of plantfood. But a friable soil may still be unfertile.

To assure an adequate supply of food in the soil, a complete plantfood should be mixed with the soil before it is placed in the pot at the rate of one heaping tablespoonful per gallon of soil.

The following table will be helpful:

A 4-inch pot requires 1/2 teaspoon

A 6-inch pot requires 1 teaspoon

An 8-inch pot requires 1 1/2 teaspoons

A 10-inch pot requires 2 teaspoons

Porch boxes require plant food as follows:

12 x 24 inches require 2 1/2 tbsps.

12 x 36 inches require 4 tbsps.

15 x 48 inches require 6 tbsps.

24 x 60 inches require 13 tbsps.

Application should be made approximately every six weeks during the growing season.

This quantity refers to the highly soluble commercial plant foods of balanced content and does not apply to much slower acting organic materials.

"We are more unanimous now than any of our products, and we have used numerous impartial and nationally known fact-finding and testing organizations to get these facts.

"As an example of the survey method, Nu-Blue Sunoco was tested last fall—before a single drop of this new miracle of gasoline chemistry was sold—by 1475 users of extra-priced gasolines in their own cars. The motorists voted 9 to 1 that Nu-Blue Sunoco equalled or excelled the extra-priced gasolines they formerly used in road performance.

"An example of another method was the test made by the nationally known organization, the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory, who proved conclusively that Nu-Blue Sunoco was unsurpassed in miles per gallon when tested against 14 leading extra-priced gasolines. And it's interesting to note that different driving speeds were covered, namely, low, medium and high.

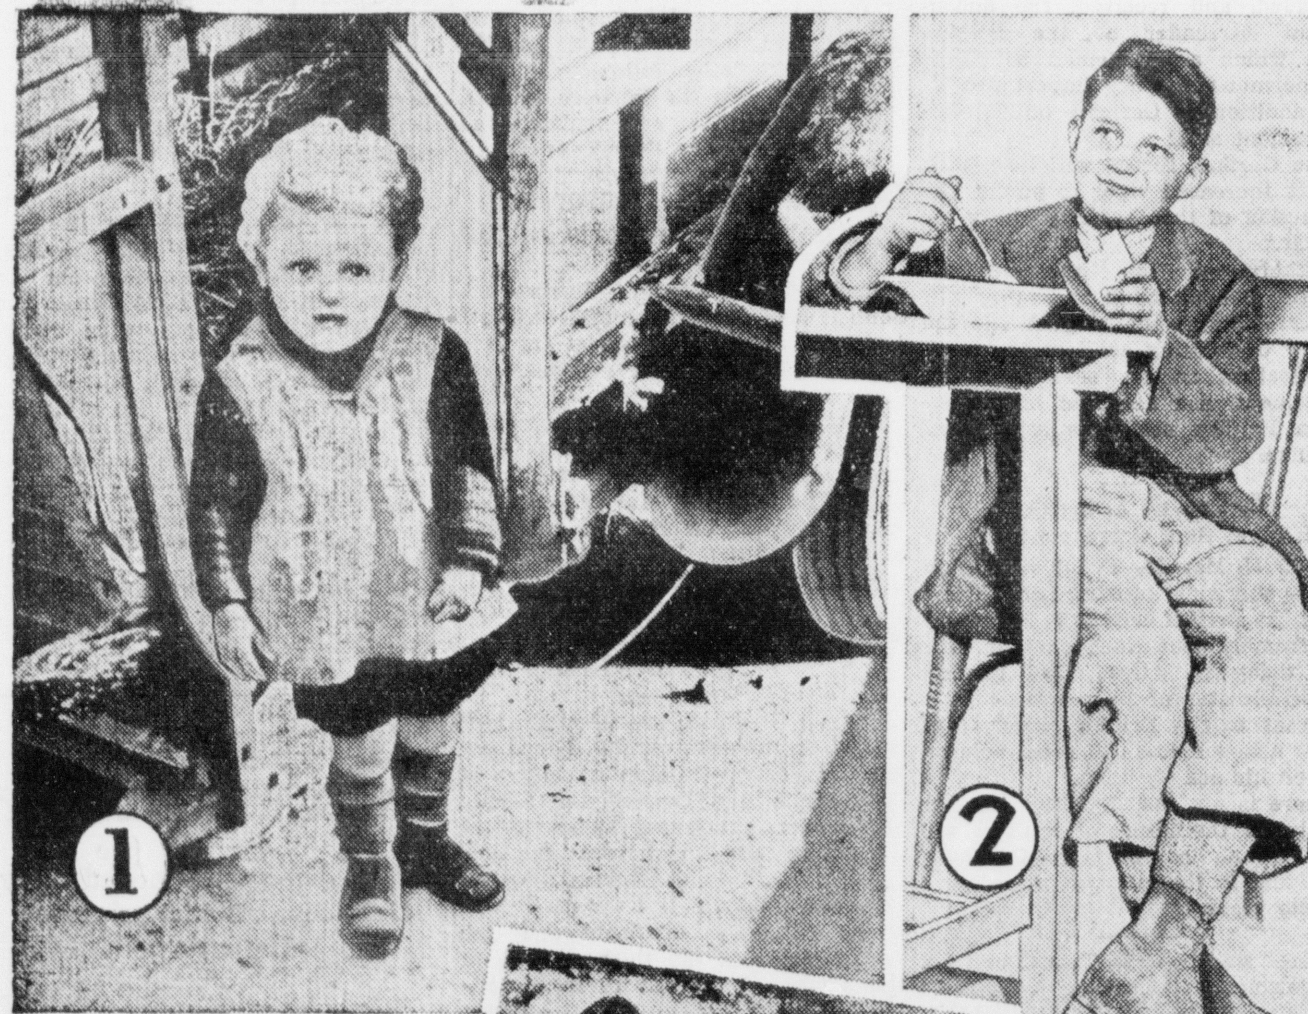

"Obviously, since Nu-Blue Sunoco sells at regular gas price, this motor fuel gives more miles per dollar than the 14 extra-priced gasolines tested."

Scientific Tests Are Important To Gas Users

"Surveys and scientific tests are becoming increasingly important to motorists who are in search of money-saving car operation," says M. H. Lester, the Sun Oil Company's Sales and Advertising Manager of Automotive Products. "They are important because they give the motorist unquestionable facts about which he would not otherwise know.

"Our company has believed for years that the motorist is entitled to know the actual facts concerning a com-

Refugee Children, Innocent War Victims, Appeal to America's Heart for Survival

"DEATH-DEALING airplanes ride the skies. The carnage of their creation sweeps many lands. Armored tanks and motorized artillery roll across whole countries destroying, as in a blight, all standing in their way. Cattle, crops, homes, people—innocent and defenseless children—stand in fear, then in despair, only to fall into destruction. Some will live. They must be aided to endure, to struggle on, to survive."

This was the message directed to America's generous heart by Chairman Norman H. Davis of the American Red Cross, in asking prompt contributions to a $10,000,000 war relief fund to be spent by the Red Cross for help to military and civilian wounded, and the homeless people of the warring nations.

"We must send relief as needed and not to late to be of use," Mr. Davis said. "We must send clothing, bedding, shoes, medications, surgical dressings and food."

Before the most recent devastation of neutral countries by aerial blitzkriegs was begun, the American Red Cross had sent 320,000 garments, knitted sweaters and hospital clothes for the women and children victims in England, Finland, France, Germany-occupied Poland and for Polish refugees in other countries. To the Red Cross societies of the nations engaged in battle, the Red Cross sent 933,000 surgical dressings. These garments and surgical dressings were made in 1,500 Red Cross Chapters throughout America. In addition, the American Red Cross purchased medicines, shoes, blankets, knitted underwear and almost a thousand other items at a cost of $1,500,000 for shipment to the Red Cross societies of belligerent nations. But with destruction, suffering, and thousands of wounded added each day to the frightful toll of war as new nations became involved, the American Red Cross appealed to the nation for at least a ten million dollar relief fund. Contributions can be made to the local Red Cross Chapter in any community in America, Mr. Davis said.

Art Week To Be Observed
In Historic Penna. Village

The New Hope Art Associates, composed of the leading artists of the Delaware Valley region, will sponsor an art week in the historic Pennsylvania village, starting June 8th.

New Hope will boast of no less than three art exhibits during the designated week. In addition to the exhibit at the gallery, adjacent to the Playhouse, there will be an exhibit sponsored by the Art Associates at the Town Hall, open to anyone in the community who wishes to hang his or her work. Participants in the round-robin exhibit can hang but one picture.

The Phillips Mill show of painting will be held during this week also. Even the New Hope high school students will compete for art week. The winning canvass will be displayed at the Art Associates Gallery, which beginning June 4th will also boast of a new collection of paintings featuring the work of Robert Moyer, brilliant young artist from Lansdale, who has decorated many of the walls in and around New Hope.

The culmination of art week at New Hope will come on Sunday afternoon, June 16th, at 3.30, when the Bucks County Playhouse will co-operate in a large-scale auction of paintings donated by the Art Associates. All proceeds from the auction will go to the New Hope Public Health Association. Miss Peggy Wood, famed London and New York actress, and Miss Halla Stoddard, charming Broadway ingenue, who will open the Playhouse the night before for the Summer season when they appear in "The Royal Family," will serve as auctioneers in selling the thirty-some pictures, one contributed by each member of the New Hope Associates.

Old-Time Favorites
That Put Zest Into MealsBy Katharine Fisher
Director, Good Housekeeping Institute

I am strong in my conviction that American cookery has never been given the place it deserves among the fine arts. The palm for cooking usually goes to France, but I believe that even the most exacting gourmet would have no hesitation in awarding it now and then to some of our American dishes. As proof of this contention, here are the recipes for a few good old stand-bys.

Chicken Pie

(Tested by Good Housekeeping Institute)
Use Institute-approved measuring cups and spoons. Measure level.KATHARINE FISHER
Director of Good Housekeeping Institute

1 1/2-lb. chicken, dressed and cut up
2 tsp. salt
2 stalks celery
12 small white onions
6 tbsp. fat

6 tbsp. flour
2 c. chicken broth
1 c. top milk
Baking-powder-biscuit dough

Simmer chicken, salt, and celery, covered, in boiling water to cover, 1 to 1 1/2 hrs., or until tender. Add onions when chicken is half done. Bone chicken, cut up, arrange with onions in a 1 1/2-qt. casserole. Melt fat in a double boiler; add flour; stir smooth. Add broth and milk; cook until thickened. Season, pour over chicken. Top with baking-powder-biscuit dough rolled 1/4" thick, and cut with a doughnut cutter. Prepared biscuit mix may be used. Bake in a hot oven of 425° F. for 30 min. Serves 6.

Sautéed Onions

(Tested by Good Housekeeping Institute)

Use Institute-approved measuring cups and spoons. Measure level.

12 peeled medium onions
1/4 c. fat
Salt

Slice the onions 1/4" thick. Cook slowly in the hot fat in a skillet, for 25 to 30 min., or until tender and golden brown, turning frequently. Sprinkle with salt and serve with hamburger balls, liver, steak, etc. Serves 6. To serve 2 or 3 make half this recipe.

For French Fried Onions, slice 6 large onions 1/4" thick. Separate into rings; dip each ring first in milk, then in seasoned flour. Fry about 2 1/2 to 3 min. in deep fat heated to 375° F., or until a 1" cube of day-old bread browns in 1 min. Drain on paper toweling and serve hot. Serves 6. To serve 2 or 3 make half this recipe.

Pan Fried Fish

(Tested by Good Housekeeping Institute)

Small whole fish, fish steaks, or fillets
Fat or oil
Milk
Corn meal

Select cleaned small fish—flounders, or brook trout, or steaks such as salmon, or any fish fillets. Dip in milk, and then roll in corn meal, completely coating all surfaces. Sauté in a skillet in a 1/4" layer of hot fat over medium heat until golden brown on the under-side. Then turn carefully with a broad spatula and continue cooking, until golden brown and tender, allowing about 7 to 12 min. for the total cooking, depending on the thickness of the fish. Serve immediately on a hot platter. Accompany with slices of tomato, cucumber, or lemon. Seasoned flour or fine dried bread crumbs may be substituted for the corn meal.

Devil's Food Cake

(Tested by Good Housekeeping Institute)

Use Institute-approved measuring cups and spoons. Measure level.

1/2 c. shortening
1 c. granulated sugar
1/2 c. boiling water
2 sq. (2 oz.) unsweetened chocolate, melted
2 eggs, unbeaten

Cream shortening 1 min., then add the sugar gradually with the electric beater at high speed. Scrape bowl; beat 1 min. Stir water and chocolate smooth; add at medium speed. Add eggs, beating 1 min. at high speed after each is added. Add sifted dry ingredients, alternately, with milk and vanilla. Bake in a greased covered 1 1/2-qt. baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven of 350° F. for 1 hr. 15 min., or until the apples are tender. Serve hot or cold with cream. Method, follow usual procedure.

Apple Tapioca

(Tested by Good Housekeeping Institute)

Use Institute-approved measuring cups and spoons. Measure level.

1/2 c. granulated sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 c. quick-cooking tapioca
2 1/2 c. boiling water

Combine the sugar, salt, and tapioca in a double boiler. Add the boiling water while stirring, and cook over hot water until the tapioca is transparent—about 5 min.—stirring frequently. Add the nutmeg and apples, and pour into a greased covered 1 1/2-qt. baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven of 350° F. for 1 hr. 15 min., or until the apples are tender. Serve hot or cold with cream. Method, follow usual procedure.

FOOD MARKET

Advice-

RAW vegetable diets for the sake of beauty have long been popular in Hollywood. Because housewives all over the country are discovering that health is beauty, and that raw vegetables, rich in vitamins, minerals, proteins, calcium, make healthy and beautiful children, market baskets today show that the country has listened in on Hollywood's advice. There is no better time than spring to see that your family gets its share of these foods on their daily diet, when the markets offer such a variety of colorful, health-giving vegetables, available to all through streamlined methods of mass merchandising. Carrots, celery, cucumbers, cabbage, and lettuce, all especially good buys for the week, can be used in their raw state on the menu, while lightly cooked asparagus, beans, beets, peas, and spinach, all reasonable in price for the week, will still furnish the vitamins that mean the glow of health and ultimately beauty. Asparagus, which has been coming to the market from California and South Carolina, is now arriving from Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware, and Arizona is now adding its carrot crop to the market. Radishes and scallions which have been reasonably priced, are low for the coming week, and give a color and tang to spring salads. Tomatoes, which have been high, are slightly lower for the coming week.

Watermelons Here

North Africa this week will furnish some of the grapes on the market. More cantaloupes, honeyballs and honeydew melons are arriving from California, and from Cuba have arrived the first watermelons that herald summer. Especially good buys for the week are bananas, pineapple, oranges and rhubarb. A few blackberries from Florida and raspberries from California are also to be found.

Fowl Good Buy

Fowl, which has been slightly high for the past few weeks, is an excellent buy for the coming week, as are ducklings and turkey. Roasting, broiling and frying chickens are still up somewhat. Pork prices remain unchanged for the week, and beef shows a slight advance. Since the last of the old crop of lamb is almost gone, and the new crop will not be here until the first of June, lamb shows some increase over a week ago. Good buys for the coming week are center slices of ham, plate and navel beef, loin lamb chops, ribs of beef, and smoked hams.

Packaged Sunshine

Eggs, called by many dietitians "packaged sunshine", are still good buys, and are plentiful in supply.

With the mackerel fleet bringing in an abundant supply, prices are expected to be low. Porgies and croakers, as well as butterfish, are arriving in numbers, and prices are low. Flounders are also plentiful, and are reasonably priced. Halibut from the west coast is expected next week, and are also reasonably priced. The shad season is almost over, but prices are fair. Large shrimp stocks are now arriving, and prices are reasonable, and clams and weakfish prices remain low.

Here is a menu made of seasonal foods at reasonable cost:

Bolled Beef, Horseradish Sauce
Bolled New Potatoes
Fresh Spinach
Cucumber and Radish Salad
Bread and Butter
Gingerbread, with Banana Slices and Whipped Cream
Tea Coffee Milk

ON THE SCREENS

GRAND THEATRE

A grown-up Deanna Durbin made it seven straight hits when her newest film, "It's a Date," opened before enthusiastic audiences yesterday at the Grand Theatre.

In many ways the new Joe Pasternak production is the Universal star's best picture. It has the most colorful setting—Hawaii—in which Deanna has ever appeared. Its comedy rates with the funniest ever screened and its romance is as poignant as the most successful hit-makers in Hollywood can produce.

The music, with Deanna singing four numbers, is again outstanding.

BRISTOL THEATRE

"The Rangers' Roundup" is a fast-moving, well-handled western that hits the mark. Fred Scott, silvery-voiced baritone, heads a flock of gallopers that give the fans plenty of excitement. Scott rides hard, shoots straight and uses his fists in a way to make his enemies respect him. His is a top-notch performance, at the Bristol Theatre today.

Traffic in stolen airplanes for shipment to Europe and an ambulance plane which can take off on a half-acre field, both new picture ideas, comprise the story background of "Mercy Plane," latest screen melodrama, coming to the Bristol Theatre, today.

RITZ THEATRE

It does not seem like only yesterday to May Robson that she made her debut in the theatre. For that day was back on September 7, 1883. Now, after 57 years of acting, Miss Robson has her first motion picture starring role in "Granny Get Your Gun," coming to the Ritz Theatre today.

Assigned to the title role in "The Man Who Wouldn't Talk," 20th Century-Fox drama opening today at the Ritz Theatre, Lloyd Nolan had to grow a full head of hair for the opening sequences.

All Autos Should Be Inspected For Holidays

With the prospect that 1940 will be another peak year for motor travel, motorists today were advised to have their automobiles completely inspected in preparation for the spring and summer driving seasons.

Trouble-free service and motoring pleasure can be planned in advance. Paul C. Voltz, distributor here for The B. F. Goodrich Company, said, if proper inspection is made before car troubles start.

"A car is no better than its tires and they should be the motorist's first concern in the interest of safe, trouble-free motoring. Careful inspection of tires will uncover any defects of bruises," Mr. Voltz said.

SCHEDULE BUCKS' FIRST MEET UNDER THE LIGHTS

PERKASIE, May 28—What is claimed to be Bucks County's first track meet under lights is scheduled for tomorrow evening, when the second annual Bucks-Mont League track and field meet takes place at Sell-Perk high school field.

Nine schools competing will be Ambler, Lansdale, Doylestown, Quakertown, Hatboro, Sellersville-Perkasie, Souderston, Springfield, Jenkintown. Approximately 255 athletes were already entered by the various coaches this week.

There will be 18 events, starting at 7:30, and continuing to 10. Since the meet is only a year old, there should be several new records established. Several new lights will be added to the 75,000-watt electric lighting system to give perfect visibility. Seating capacity will be available for upward of 3,000 people.

Gold, silver and bronze medals are awarded for the first three places in each event except the relays in which three sets of each are given. The medals were designed by a school student in the league.

County officials of Montgomery and Bucks will be honorary judges, while the field judges are as follows: John Hudak, chief field judge; field judges, Earl S. Evans, Joseph Ricapito, J. W. Butler, Robert Smith, S. E. Chiles, Jack Saurina, Charles H. Lease, P. E. Phillips and John J. Howard; referee, James H. Heller, all of Bethlehem.

Endorses Celebration To Be Held Here July 4th

all the Adjacent Communities. Members of the committee and all others who are interested are urged to attend this meeting.

The following letters endorsing the July 4th celebration have been received by the committee:

May 24, 1940.

Independence Day Celebration Committee.

Gentlemen:

The manner in which our Independence Day Celebration was conducted last year was perfect and should be conducted again this year in every detail. This year, more so than last, it is more necessary to give vent to our feelings that we are proud to be Americans.

The burning of powder in this way is not a waste of money. We should thank the good God above that we can burn it to celebrate, and not to kill other people's children.

I personally suggest to your committee that you use the slogan, "Burn Powder to Celebrate and Not to Kill," for the raising of funds.

The committee that had charge of last year's celebration is to be congratulated on the splendid work they did, and hope they have the same success this year. I am, for a Safe and Sane 4th of July,

Yours very truly,

JESSE CARR,

Chairman, Safety Committee,

Chief, Bucks Co. Rescue Squad.

Bristol Fourth of July Celebration, Mr. Anthony Russo, Chairman, Municipal Building, Bristol, Pa.

My dear Mr. Russo:

The members of the Robert W. Bracken Post are pleased to join with your organization to again conduct Patriotic Exercises this July Fourth.

We believe your efforts last year were repaid by the presence of many thousands of citizens of our Community who attended the morning and evening programs and who must anticipate with pleasure the coming celebration.

Our organization is pleased to offer you our 100% co-operation and enclose a small contribution toward the expenses of the affair. Our Cadet Corps await your instructions with respect to their part in the program and our membership has been requested to co-operate fully in your campaign for funds.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT W. DOWNING,

Post Adjutant.

monument, in front of the William E. Case School, where Commander Michael Kish and his officials will place a wreath. The parade will continue throughout streets of the town and then to the Morrisville Cemetery.

The salute will be given over the grave of James Morrissey, the last deceased member of the Post. The opening prayer will be given by the Rev. Clifford G. Pollock, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and the closing prayer by the Rev. Charles H. Weller, pastor of the Methodist Church. Donald Wallis will give "Flanders Field" and Reed Pratt will give Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Legionnaires in the firing squad include Walter Wardell, sergeant; Herbert LaRue, Russell Ettenner, John B. Sumner, Harry Benham, Walter Barber, Alfred Buckalew, George McAuley, and George Duke. Taps will be blown by Paul Badstuebner and Wesley Evans.

Edward Mountford and John Gear have charge of decorating the graves of past members of the Post. These include Morrisville and Falls Township cemeteries, Liverview, Greenwood and Ewing.

Asks Motorists To Drive Carefully

this Commonwealth. This year, as we begin our Memorial Day holiday period, there are approximately 2,000,000 cars licensed to drive on our highways. This is an increase of over 30,000," Secretary Hamilton stated.

"Gasoline consumption is up correspondingly. Both of these facts are gratifying and we are glad to see them. But what we do not want to see is a corresponding increase in motorcar accidents, injuries or fatalities.

"Automotive science has made motor cars better than they were last year. Highway safety engineers, the Pennsylvania Motor Police, local enforcement authorities, motor clubs and civic bodies are doing their utmost to keep accident figures down and are co-operating closely. Roads have been improved. Motors and more road signs have been erected to aid the driver. But all of these are of little or no value without the fullest co-operation on the part of the motorist. It is to you, 'the man behind the wheel,' that I appeal for common sense driving, for skill and for respect for the rights of others.

"With your cooperation we can make this Memorial Day week-end a safe one. With your help we can cut our accident and death rate below the figures of 1939 despite the increased highway traffic," Secretary Hamilton concluded.

ing while drunk on May 11, on the Brownsville road near Neshaminy Heights when he struck a car driven by Michael Binsfield, Lower Southampton township. No one was injured. Williams informed Judge Keller that he had paid all the damages to the Binsfield car and had gone to his house voluntarily. A quart of 33-cent wine got the defendant in trouble, it was testified.

"Your case differs a lot from others; you did the right thing when you offered voluntarily to settle the damages," the Court remarked.

Williams was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs with a prison sentence suspended on condition that he not apply for the renewal of his driver's license for a year. Williams was arrested by Private Erdman, of the Oxford Valley sub-station of Motor Police.

Frank H. Morgan, 60, Trenton, pleaded guilty to driving while drunk on the Lincoln Highway in Falls township when he was arrested by Private Gollub, of the Oxford Valley sub-station of Motor Police. Morgan formerly lived in Warrington for 25 years, defendant told Judge Keller that he had taken but "two beers."

"Your beer must have been pretty powerful, Morgan," remarked Judge Keller. Patrolman Gollub testified that Morgan had told him that he had 16 glasses of beer in Pottstown, but the defendant said he did not remember saying anything like that. Morgan is a steam-fitter.

A sentence of $150 and costs was imposed on Morgan and a prison sentence of 30 days to 1 year suspended on condition that he not apply for a new driver's license for 1 year.

John R. Martin, 36, of Philadelphia, pleaded guilty to driving while drunk at Neshaminy along the Lackawanna Trail on March 5 when he was arrested by Private Shovelin, of the Doylestown sub-station of Motor Police. Martin told Judge Keller that he had taken "5 shots of whiskey" in New Hope and Doylestown before starting out. The officer testified that the defendant forced three cars, a bus, a truck and a pleasure car, off the highway. Dr. William Westcott, of Doylestown, examined Martin and found him "under the influence."

Martin, a gasoline station operator in Phila., was fined $150 and costs and a prison sentence of 30 days was suspended on condition that no application be made for a renewal of his driver's license for 1 year.

"You at least told the truth about what you had to drink," Judge Keller remarked in sentencing Martin.

Henry Coard, of New York City, arrested on April 9, at 6:30 p. m. on the old Lincoln Highway near the Trappe Hotel, pleaded guilty to driving while drunk when he was arrested by an Oxford Valley sub-station policeman. Coard's car overturned on a curve. He told Judge Keller that he was on his way home from Philadelphia to New York after making a sick call in Phila. No one was hurt. Coard was fined $150 and costs and a prison sentence of 30 days was suspended on condition that a driver's license for one year.

A fine of $100 and costs was imposed on Vincent Roche, of Phila. yesterday by Judge Keller, after Roche pleaded guilty to driving while drunk on April 11, at 6:20 p. m. in Falls township, east of Oxford Valley. Private Gollub, of the Oxford Valley sub-station, arrested him and took him to the office of a Morrisville osteopath for examination. Roche told the court that he had taken eight glasses of beer. The defendant also lost his job as the result of his arrest.

Lewis Huber, Jr., 24, Hatboro, pleaded guilty before Judge Calvin S. Boyer yesterday to operating a motor vehicle after operating privilege had been revoked. His license was suspended on July 19, 1939, following an action in an automobile accident. Huber was fined $25 and costs; sentence was suspended with the defendant placed on probation for 6 months.

Anthony Dipietro, 32, of 2116 West Clearfield st., Phila., went on trial yesterday before a jury in Judge Boyer's court, charged with driving while drunk. He was found guilty by the jury. Through his attorney, State Senator Howard I. James, Bristol, an application was made for a new trial and Dipietro was released under $1,000 bail. Dr. Theodore Cohen, Morrisville, who examined the defendant, said that Dipietro said that he had taken eight beers in Trenton before his arrest on May 13 near the Morrisville-Trenton bridge.

Oliver C. Major, 53, Mozart, pleaded guilty before Judge Boyer to a charge of driving while drunk on April 10 when he was arrested by Private Sablinsky, of the Doylestown sub-station. He stated that he got a half dozen beers in Lambertville. Judge Boyer fined Major $150 and costs.

CAN OR FREEZE THE SURPLUS ASPARAGUS FOR USE IN FUTURE

By Miss Edna Stephany

(Home Economics Representative)

Asparagus may be canned cut or whole. To can whole, put the asparagus in bundles, place in a pan of boiling water, keep the tips above water, boil three minutes, and pack into hot containers. Pour water in which the asparagus has been pre-cooked over the vegetable to within a half-inch of the top of the jar and add 1 teaspoon of salt to every quart jar.

If the hot water bath is used, completely seal the jars, place in bath and have water 1 inch above the top of the jar. Have the water boiling rapidly and allow the jars to remain in the boiling bath for two hours.

Partially seal the jars if the pressure cooker is used and process at 10 pounds pressure for 40 minutes for quarts and 30 minutes for pint jars.

If the family prefers cut asparagus, cut in half-inch lengths after thorough washing. Be sure the scales on the vegetables are removed, since soil tends to lodge in these crevices and may carry bacteria that will cause spoilage. Bring cut asparagus to a boil in water to cover and pack hot into hot sterilized jars. Use water the asparagus has been cooked in to fill jars if you want to save as many vitamins and minerals as possible. Follow the same directions as for whole asparagus for processing in water bath and pressure cooker.

Perhaps you have rented a freezer locker plant. For freezing, carefully select the variety of asparagus. Mary Washington has been found a satisfactory variety in this state. Wash asparagus thoroughly, sort, leave whole or cut. Be sure to rinse scales, and do not use iron utensils. Work quickly for best results.

Steam asparagus for 2 to 3 minutes or cook in rapidly boiling water for the same time. Place vegetable at once after pre-cooking into a large amount of cold water. Pack into clean jars, tin cans, cellophane bags or paper board cartons and seal. Take at once to the freezer locker plant and have vegetable frozen quickly in a sharp freezing room and then place in a locker box. Use 1 teaspoon of salt to 1 cup of water and pour this cold brine over the cold vegetables and pack. If paper board cartons or cellophane bags are used, vegetables seem to be better if they are packed dry.

Success in freezing vegetables depends on selecting the right variety; working as quickly as possible; thoroughly washing; pre-cooking; rapid cooking; taking to locker plant at once; quick freezing; and storing in locker room at zero with little change of temperature.

Research has shown that green vegetables freeze well, retaining their color, flavor, vitamin and mineral content.

advance from one per cent. to two per cent. as something of which to be proud when there is urgent need for one hundred per cent. In effect, that is what Mr. Roosevelt did.

NO politician, however highly placed, ought to try—particularly in a national crisis—to play both sides of the street at the same time. It will be difficult for those who believed fully the story told by the President Sunday night of the fine condition and great improvement in the armed forces to retain their conviction, fostered by his message a week ago, that these armed forces are in a feeble and woefully inadequate state. Yet such is unquestionably the case. The truth is that while it is unfounded and unjust to say that the money has gone down the rat-hole, it is just as unfounded to contend that it has been spent effectively and without great waste. The testimony of all the experts negatives that claim.

AND certainly it is wrong to convey the impression, which Mr. Roosevelt clearly did, that either army or navy is a first-class fighting machine measured by modern standards. To promulgate that thought is to mislead the people in order to provide an alibi for himself. A milder way of describing it is to say that the President failed to be realistic. But it was not only in connection with the armed forces that he seemed misleading and unrealistic. For example, it is certainly misleading to convey the idea that more billions can be spent quickly and effectively for defense without relaxing in any way the so-called social legislation of the New Deal which hamstringing the industries upon which Mr. Roosevelt now calls for co-operation.

AND certainly it is unrealistic to address the nation with every appearance of candor and yet refrain from pointing out the basic fact that the huge expenditures now contemplated must be accompanied by new and heavier taxes. Not one word on this vital phase came from Mr. Roosevelt. Not once did he so much as suggest that in order to carry out this program the people must somehow pay. In no sentence does he suggest the necessity of economizing in other directions or touch upon the inevitability of higher rates. All that is to be left until after the election. Until then, apparently, it is his purpose to talk to the people as though all that had to be done was for Congress to appropriate this money and for him to spend it.

THE President is not justified in this pushing aside the unpleasant realities. He pretends to be frank and open and he is anything but frank and open. His failure to lay the financial facts squarely before the people; his plain purpose to avoid any recommendation to Congress at this session for tax action; his refusal to even consider economies or modification of New Deal peace reforms; his praise of labor leaders, and his comment upon war profiteers—all these things gave the speech a campaign flavor distressing to those who feel that nonpartisan national unity is the great need of the hour.

IN this connection it is to be noted that nowhere in his speech did the President once refer, as he has in the past, to a desire to lift this effort above the level of politics and secure nonpartisan support. Of course, it ought to be above that level, and nonpartisan support is essential, but Mr. Roosevelt can make no appeal for either now without promptly producing the unanswerable retort that it lies wholly in his power to achieve both these things. He, and he alone, can bring them about. All he has to do is to renounce his third-term ambitions. That would unite the country behind him as nothing else could.

SO long as he refuses to do that he is, in effect, a party candidate, and that is neither healthy nor helpful. It breeds suspicion and resentment. It creates an issue which beclouds the vital facts and makes unity impossible. The mere mention of the word politics would precipitate a debate as to the propriety of the President being a third-term candidate while asking for nonpartisan support in a national emergency. In such a debate Mr. Roosevelt has no ground upon which to stand. Hence he avoids the subject. It, taxes and economy are all blacklisted for the time being.

Get Your Spring Tonic In The Foods You Eat

Grandmother would insist that you take some "tonic" now that it's "turning springtime." But we've learned a lot since grandmother brewed her potions. Nutrition has become a science since her day and has taught us that we can get our own "spring tonic" by the correct choice of foods.

Inez S. Willson, home economist, stresses the importance of minerals in the diet, particularly in the spring. Phosphorus, iron and calcium are most likely to be deficient and though they are necessary in comparatively small amounts, we won't be up to par on less than our quota.

Meat is our best source of both iron and phosphorus that is available to everyone at all times of the year. Liver is the most obvious source of both these minerals, but lean meats rank high as well.

Phosphorus is present in every cell and is essential to all body tissues, aids the work of various glands and is necessary for strong bones.

Iron is a necessary constituent of our blood, helping to oxidize food.

Try serving the following nutritious combination of meat and vegetables to give your family a natural "spring tonic."

Beef Stew With Vegetables

- 2 pounds diced beef chuck
- 3 tablespoons lard
- 1 cup water
- 1 pound green beans or one No. 2 can green beans
- 7 carrots
- 6 small white onions
- 6 whole cabbage leaves
- Salt
- Pepper

Brown meat in hot lard. Add water. Cover and simmer for 45 minutes. Add fresh beans, carrots and onions and continue to simmer. Season. Fifteen minutes before meat is done add separated cabbage leaves and continue cooking. Thicken liquid left in kettle and serve with stew.

SPRING "GREENS" DISHES

Here are some simple recipes for simple yet healthful dishes—prepared from greens that are obtainable now, or will be very soon:

Dandelion Greens

- 2 pounds dandelion greens
 - Salt and pepper
 - 1 tablespoon butter
- Dandelions should be used before they blossom, as they become bitter after that time. Cut off the roots, pick the greens over carefully, and wash them well in several waters. Place them in a kettle, add a little boiling water, and boil until tender. Salt the water just before cooking is completed. When done, lift them into a colander, press them to drain off all the water, and chop. Add butter, salt and pepper.

Beet Greens

Carefully wash and clean young beets, leaving roots and tops together. Put them into a kettle with very little boiling water and allow them to cook until just tender. Salt the water just before cooking is completed. Drain as dry as possible in a colander. Chop, if desired. Serve hot with vinegar or with butter, salt and pepper.

Cress and Dandelion Salad

- 1 cup water cress
 - 1 cup dandelion greens
 - 6 thin slices raw onion
 - French dressing
- The dandelion should be fresh and young. Wash the leaves carefully and drain well. Arrange them in a salad bowl with the cress. Add the slices of onion and pour the French dressing over all.

NEW USE FOR FIREARMS

WOLFEBORO, N. H.—(INS)—A new use for antique firearms was discovered recently—that of a fire alarm. Heat of a fire in a bedroom set off the charge in an antique musket decorating the room calling the attention of the owner to the blaze causing it to be confined to the room with a minimum loss.

STOCKINGS FROM THE CHEMIST'S TEST-TUBE VERY WELL SHAPED

By Miss Edna Stephany

Home Economics Representative
For over a year you have been hearing about a new type of hosiery made of coal and water. You may have seen a pair being worn by one of the test-tubes.

The new hose are a revolution in composition, being neither silk, rayon, lisle, or cotton, although they look like silk. They have been given the name Nylon. The hose are sheer but have amazing elasticity that will stand much knee strain. One wearer says they fit so well that they feel like a second skin. Nylon hose are somewhat spot repellent, quick drying, and go back to their original shape. The feet are particularly well-shaped.

Nylon hose will need the same care given sheer silk hose. Being sheer they may snag and cannot be guaranteed against snagging. They are made in various weights, such as silk hose are. Be careful of finger nails and rough surfaces. If a thread is broken, the hose will run because of its knit construction.

The fiber used in these new hose has a low capacity for absorption of moisture, so the hose dry quickly and soil does not carry into the fiber. Washing may be gentle because it is necessary only to wash dirt off and not out.

Never subject these sheer hose to unusual strains and never press with a hot iron or keep near extreme heat.

LIFE-SIZE TELEVISION

NEW YORK—(INS)—Television on full-sized screens, measuring 9 by 12 feet, before next fall, is forecast by David Sarnoff, president of Radio Corporation of America. He indicated, too, a probability that television installations would be available for showings in motion picture theatres.

WARNING ON EYEBLACK

LONDON—(INS)—The Ministry of Home Security has warned women not to wear non-waterproof eyblack. In the event of a gas attack, the perspiration caused by wearing a gas mask would make the eyblack run, lead to smarting eyes and an urgent desire to remove the mask—with dangerous results.

THE year's first great 'outdoors holiday' is right ahead. Let's make it a holiday without regrets—without an aftermath of sorrow and suffering as a result of highway accidents.

It can be if every person who slides in behind a steering wheel, everyone who walks a highway will think first and act later.

Dozens killed; scores, even hundreds injured. Up, up goes the total of battered bodies and spilled blood as warm weather holiday follows warm weather holiday. More automobiles than ever before are crowding the roads, more people are rushing more places. So there is every prospect of a mounting accident toll unless something drastic is done to halt it.

Your public officials and police are doing everything they can. But your help is needed. For you and you alone can make Pennsylvania's highways safe.

Have your car safety-checked before you start on the holiday trip. Keep a safety check upon yourself every moment you are behind the wheel. And carefully follow the "Don'ts" that appear at the left.

LOOKING FORWARD

By Franklyn Waltman
Publicity Director, Republican National Committee

Examples of how the New Deal is running the country raged multiply. Several weeks ago in this place there was detailed a shining example of bureaucracy, written around the vacillating action of the New Deal-Federal Communications Commission in regard to television broadcasting.

There we had an example of the Roosevelt Administration's general hostility to commercial and industrial progress and also an example of the swiftness with which a New Deal regulatory agency can reverse itself, leaving business in a state of bewilderment as to what may be expected next.

Now we have an example of the New Deal's eternal itch for constant change for no other apparent reason than to make a change. This example concerns the President's reorganization order under which the now independent Civil Aeronautics Authority would be placed under the Secretary of Commerce, with the abolition of the Air Safety Board.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

WHAT goes into your market basket as you shop has a decided bearing on the health of your family, doctors are discovering. For in the foods you select, there are frequently health-giving properties as important as the ones that you once drank for a spring tonic. Asparagus is soothing to the nerves, endive is excellent for the liver, and carrots aid in the cure of skin diseases, doctors recently announced. It is said gray hair can be checked by eating liver, rice, bran, as well as a number of vegetables. Barley improves the blood stream, and pineapples and pineapple juice are excellent for the intestinal ailments. Important, then, to select plenty of these foods when you do your marketing for Sunday.

- Cucumbers, carrots, lettuce, asparagus, beans, beets, peas and spinach are low priced for the coming week, and are all rich in minerals and vitamins. Good fruit buys, also excellent spring tonics, are pineapples, oranges and rhubarb.
- All pork prices for the coming week are excellent, with center slices and smoked hams the best buys. Many fish, including porgies, croakers, flounders, butterfish, haddock, clams and weakfish, are excellently priced, and are full of nutrition for the family.
- Here are three menus suggested by Miss Cora Anthony of the A&P kitchen for Sunday at different price levels:
- Low Cost Dinner
Pork and Beef Loaf
Creamed Potatoes
Glazed Carrots
Mixed Spring Salad
Hot Biscuits
Fresh Pineapple
Tea Coffee Milk
- Moderate Cost Dinner
Broiled Ham Slices
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Buttered Cauliflower

merging of the Civil Aeronautics Authority with the Commerce Department, subject to the supervision of the Secretary of Commerce. His order also contemplated abolition of the Air Safety Board, transferring its duties to the new Civil Aeronautics Authority and thus again placing in the same hands the function of administration, law-making and judicial determination.

WHY? None seems to know. Mr. Roosevelt's only explanation was that he was actuated by motives of economy. The merger would save a few thousand dollars a year. This explanation is just too funny, in view of Mr. Roosevelt's wasteful and prodigal spending activities, for anyone to take seriously.

Since a storm of controversy broke over his proposal, Mr. Roosevelt tried other explanations but each has been shattered by facts as soon as it was projected. Finally Mr. Roosevelt has contended that anyone who opposes him in this regard must be either ignorant, glib or playing politics.

Information regarding motor vehicle inspection stations, their responsibilities to the State and the public, as a whole, and the material published herewith was taken from "Revised Instructions, Official Inspection Stations," as issued by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Inspection Procedure

The following is a general procedure for the inspection of motor vehicles. It need not necessarily be followed in the order shown, especially in the case of those larger stations that have a definite system of keeping records, however, all the items enumerated must be given the proper attention and be in the proper condition or made so beyond any doubt in the mind of the person making the inspection before a sticker may be affixed. It will serve to bring about complete inspection of the motor vehicle in conformity with the Department requirements. When the work sheets, Form RPSG-37's are completed they are to be returned to the Department.

In this inspection, the following units and/or their component parts shall be examined:

1. Registration.
2. Horn.
3. Mirror.
4. Windshield Wiper.
5. Brakes—Service and Emergency.
6. Steering—including column, housing, connections, arms, spindles, and geometry.
7. Lights—all, and to be checked with approved list. Candle power and discoloration and sagging filaments.
8. Tires.
9. Commercial vehicle directional signal indicators, flare equipment, and reflectors were required.
10. Exhaust system—(Prevention of carbon monoxide gas).

SUGGESTED METHOD OF INSPECTION

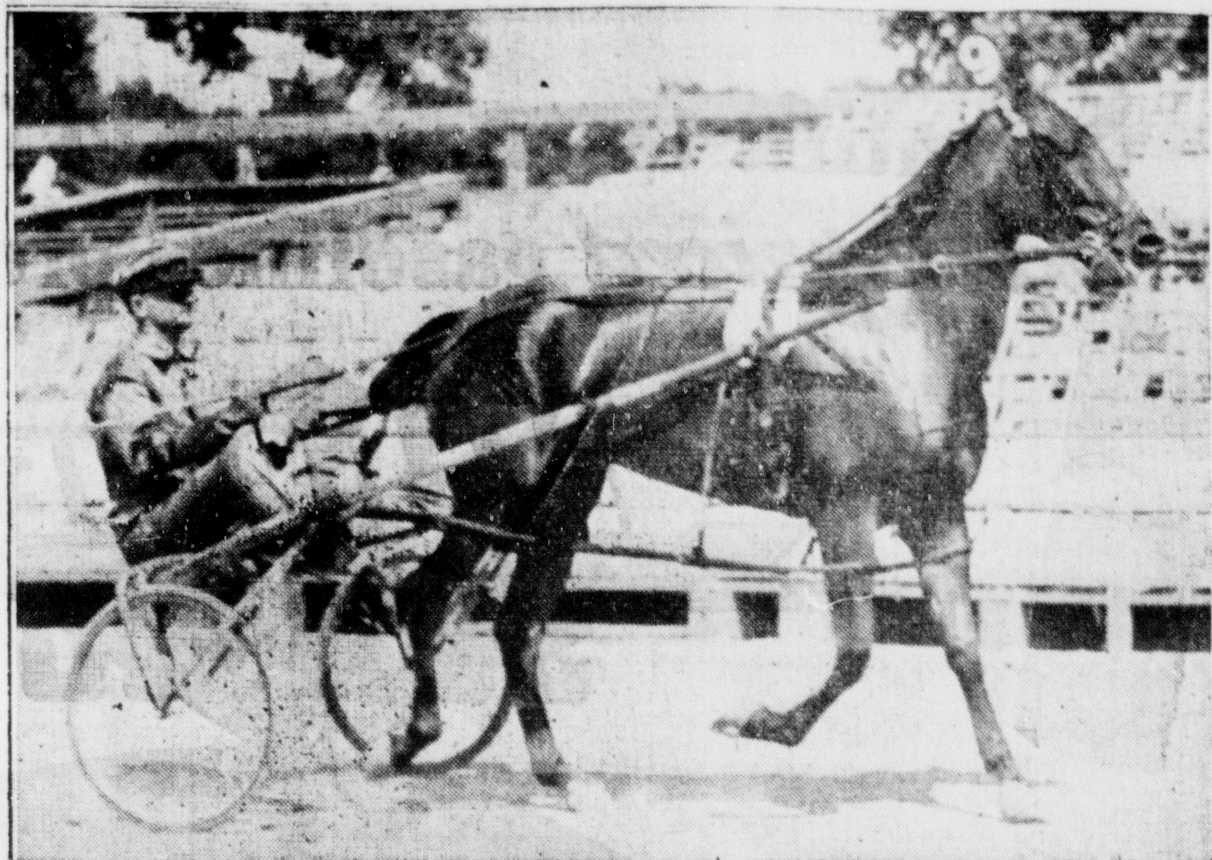

Registration Plates

Check identification numbers on owner's card with manufacturer's number and motor number on the vehicle. If all numbers correspond, proceed with the inspection.

Do not proceed with the inspection in the case of any discrepancy in numbers, and notify the Department on Form RPSG-5. Registration plates must not be obscured by bumpers, fender guards, or other equipment and must be clearly legible.

(Sirens, compression or spark plug whistles, or bells, as prohibited by the Vehicle Code, should be removed, except on fire, police or ambulance equipment.) The horn or other warning devices must be in good working order, capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions, from a distance of not less than two hundred (200) feet.

Section 815—No person shall operate a motor vehicle on a highway, which motor vehicle is so constructed or loaded as to prevent the operator from obtaining a view of the highway to the rear by looking backward from the operator's position, unless such vehicle is equipped with a mirror, so located as to reflect to the operator a view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet to the rear of such vehicle.

Windshield Wipers

Windshields must be unobstructed and equipped with wipers in good working order. If of an automatic type, manual operation is not sufficient. When equipped with two wipers both must operate. Wiper blades must clean an arc of at least seven (7) inches and be free of rubber deterioration.

What Do You Know About Health?

By FISHER BROWN and NAT FALK

1. WHO WAS THOMAS WILLIS?

2. HOW OLD IS THE CANNING INDUSTRY?

Answers: 1. He was a member of the distinguished group of seventeenth century physicians who believed that the secrets of health and of disease lay mainly in certain physical and chemical formulae.

3. As a result of the damage to farms and the dangers of water-borne infection, such as typhoid, occurring during a flood the milk supply might become contaminated. Municipal authorities are able to guard against this danger by thorough inspection of milk at its source. Just such an emergency happened in 1937 and 1938 in New York, and was well handled by the corps of trained "country inspectors" of the city Health Department.

CORNWELLS GIRLS WIN LEAGUE CROWN; DEFEAT BRISTOL

Thelma "Slug" Vandegrift
Pitches Her Team To Capture The Honors

FINAL SCORE IS 5 TO 1

Backed Up by Good Fielding
On the Part of Her
Team-Mates

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, May 28.—Thelma Vandegrift, three-star athlete at Bensalem High, pitched her team to the school's first softball championship of the Lower Bucks County League when the Owl girls defeated Bristol High, their big rivals from up the Pike, here yesterday afternoon, 5-1.

In chalking up the triumph, "Slug," turned in a five hit job on the mound and had the Cardinal girls shut out until the sixth frame when Ethel Link reached base on an error by Doris Cribble, stole second and third, then scored on Ann Warwick's short fly to left field.

"Slug" had only two strike outs, one of which retired the side in the seventh with the bases full. She displayed her best ability in the pinches by forcing Bristol's heavy hitters to pop up continuously with runners on the paths.

Vandegrift was backed by some good fielding on the part of her teammates, especially in the outfield where Hazel Lamont starred. The victory was the seventh in a row for Bensalem and it enabled them to finish their league schedule without a setback in winning their first championship.

EDEGLY A. C. WINS THIRD STRAIGHT GAME

MORRISVILLE, May 28.—Edgely A. C. won its third straight game of the Bristol Suburban League, blanking the King Supply nine, 3-0, on League Island field.

It was also the second straight shut-out victory for Stan Dick who held the Morrisville team to a pair of bingles. Aiding the Edgelyites immensely in their victory were two fast double-plays, both started by the hurler Dick.

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, May 28.—Newtown High won its protest lodged against the Bensalem Owls in their tilt of May 14th in a decision reached by telephone yesterday morning. The decision was handed down by no less an authority than the dean of big league baseball, Connie Mack, president and manager of the Philadelphia Athletics of the American Professional Baseball League.

Connie stated that the run in dispute should have counted on the ground that the batter was not the third out and since the runner put out was not forced by the batter, the run which scored on the play before the third out was recorded should have gone into the books.

The play in dispute occurred in the second inning of the heated contest, played here two weeks ago when Newtown had runners on second and third with one out. Dave Matthews lifted a high fly to Pete Everett in left field. Dick Rude, on second at the time, thinking two were out, rounded third and was on his way home when doubled off second. In the meantime, however, Ray Slater, who was on third, dug up and crossed the plate easily before the double play was completed.

Umpire Calder, who worked the game, ruled the run should not count but later changed his opinion and said the run would count if statements in the official rule book could prove the point, otherwise it wouldn't. Coach Allen Tomlinson of Newtown immediately protested the decision and since the Indians ultimately lost the ball game by the margin of the lost run, 9-8, he went through with the protest.

After all the technicalities were cleared up and the final rendition of the play given, it was agreed by all concerned that the game should and would be replayed. And in accordance with that agreement the tilt will be replayed this afternoon on the Owl's field at Cornwells where the original game was also played.

In an effort to annex the title outright, Coach Tomlinson will probably send his ace righthander, Al Driver, to the mound against the Owls. On the other hand, Reimer will respond with his ace righthander, Gene Ashton, in hopes of getting back into a third place tie with Morrisville in the final league standings.

CROYDON GAME CALLED IN THIRD INNING

Rain, in the third inning, brought a halt to the Croydon Y. M. A. - Voltz-Texaco tilt last night on Leedom's field. At the time of the calling of the game, Croydon was ahead, 4-0, and seemed headed for an easy victory.
